Town of Lowell's Labor Day Parade
"A Time To Remember"

The Town of Lowell's Labor Day "Harvest of Fun" Committee would like to invite you to again participate in this year's 89th Labor Day Parade. The 2008 parade will be held on Monday, September 1, and this year's theme is "A Time To Remember". The parade will start promptly at 10:00 A.M.

This annual event is financed by contributions only and the parade committee would like to report that no tax dollars are used to fund this event. We do not require an entry fee for the parade. We are hoping, however, that you will consider making a contribution to this event. We plan to provide a list of all the names of contributors in a publication so that residents will know who has contributed to this important event. Your donation is tax deductible.

Again this year, the Town of Lowell and the Lowell Chamber of Commerce have joined forces to put on this year's festivities. The festival will begin on Thursday, August 28 with the Garage Sale and will continue through Monday, September 1 with craft booths, food vendors, a beer tent, an antique auction, amusement rides and various forms of entertainment.

If it is possible for you to make a contribution at this time, please detach the bottom portion of this letter and mail it with the enclosed parade application to the: Town of Lowell, 501 E. Main St., P.O. Box 157, Lowell, IN 46356.

Sincerely,
The Town of Lowell's "Harvest of Fun" Committee
